

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Department Political Science

POL 455H1-F/POL 2355H1-F

2022-2023

TWENTIETH-CENTURY UKRAINE

Professor Paul Robert Magocsi
Class meetings: Wednesdays 3-5
University College 67

Office hours: Thursdays 12-1
also by appointment: 416-978-3332
Jackman Humanities Building
170 St. George Street, Room 201

COURSE OUTLINE

Week

1. Introduction
2. The Socioeconomic Setting and Nationality Question before World War I
3. Revolutions in the Russian Empire and Western Ukrainian Lands, 1917-1919
4. Civil War and the New International Order, 1919-1920
5. Interwar Soviet Ukraine: the Struggle for Autonomy
6. Interwar Soviet Ukraine: Economic, Political, and Cultural Integration
7. Western Ukrainian Lands During the Interwar Years
8. World War II and its Impact on Ukraine
9. Other Peoples of Ukraine
10. Soviet Ukraine from World War II to Gorbachev
11. Ukraine from Independence to the Maidan
12. Summary

REQUIRED AND SUPPLEMENTARY READINGS:

On separate list

WRITTEN WORK

Essay of 6,250 to 7,500 typewritten words (25-30 one-sided doubled-spaces pages) to be submitted December 7, 2022.

GRADING

Oral reports	25%
Class participation	25%
Essay	50%